A MISSING GUN

May Clear up the Uncertainty Regarding the Relative

GUILT OF DEVINNEY AND JOHNSON,

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY SAYS THE CREEK NEAR THE SCENE OF THE SHOOTING WILL BE DRAGGED AFTER WEDNESDAY'S HEARING—MR. HOWARD IS TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE PROSECUTION.

Whether Devinney fired the first two shots in the McLaughlin tragedy of last Friday and then handed the gun to "Bandy" Johnson, or that Devinney and Johnson both had guns and the former's was done away with, is a question which Prosecuting Attorney Meyer has not yet settled to his satisfaction, and it will not be settled until after the preliminary hearing of the accused men on Wednesday. The prosecutor hopes that evidence will be adduced at this hearing that will solve the problem.

If the hearing does not solve the problem it is the intention of Mr. Meyer to proceed at once and have a thorough search made of the ground in the vicinity of the shooting. The bottom of Wheeling creek will also be dragged for the supposed missing weapon; it would have been an easy matter for Devinney to throw the pistol from the sidewalk where the tragedy occurred into the stagnant creek. At all events a search will probably determine whether the murderers had one or two pistols. It is conceded that if the gun had been found since the murder, its finder would have lost no time in turning it over to the authorities. It is a dangerous matter to hold in possession a weapon that has figured in a murder.

That the trial of Devinney and Johnson will become a celebrated case in local criminal annals goes without saying; that the murderers will be able prosecuted is also well assured. In addition to Prosecuting Attorney Meyer, whose ability has shown conspicuously during the few days since the murder, the state will have the services of ex-Prosecuting Attorney John A. Howard. As predicted in Monday's Intelligencer, he was engaged yesterday by the Bridgeport glassworkers' union, of which the murdered man was a member, to assist and co-operate with Mr. Meyer in the prosecution of the murderers. Mr. Howard called upon Mr. Meyer yesterday morning, and they are now arranging for the approaching hearing of the accused men.

So far, the prisoners have engaged only one lawyer, Mr. S. O. Boyce. It is stated that several lawyers have called on the prisoners and solicited the job of defending them. Of these, Mr. Boyce and other lawyers who say such a thing is entirely unprofessional, spoke in terms that were most uncomplimentary yesterday afternoon.

A TEMPORARY SHERIFF

To Serve Eight Months to be Appointed in Belmont County.

Over in Belmont county the commissioners find it necessary to appoint some one to fill the office of sheriff for a term of eight months, owing to a change having been made by the legislature last year in the time when newly elected sheriffs shall enter upon their duties.

Sheriff Darby's term has ended, and Sheriff-elect Foreman cannot enter in upon his duties for eight months, and consequently some one must be appointed to serve those eight months, as the law provides that the sheriff whose term has just expired is not eligible to the office by appointment.

As this is the case the county commissioners must select a man of intelligence and ability to fill the office for those eight months, a man who has some insight into the work, and knows how to manage it. Ex-Sheriff Scott, of St. Clairsville, is being spoken of in this connection. He is a genial, whole-souled gentleman of courage, integrity and honesty and his appointment would no doubt meet with the approval of the Republicans of Belmont county.

Martin's Ferry Property for Sale.

That part of the Walnut Grove property offered for sale Saturday, September 24, at 10 a. m., contains 43.100 acres. This property would certainly be useful for park purposes now that the street car line will run around it. The location overlooking the Ohio river valley, will furnish beautiful sites for residences. While the sale of it in lots might be profitable it will suit the Elliot heirs living at a distance to make sale of it as a whole and five or ten years time will be given if parties desire it, or large reduction be made for cash. The lots near the extended street car line will be distinctly laid off by Mr. Lash and positively sold. One-fourth cash balance in four years.

SUITS AND TOP COATS—THE HUB.

Let's Look at the Facts As They Are.

The Big Store this season wears the crown of leadership more deservedly than ever. In all your clothes buying you've never seen Suits and Top Coats to compare with our new line. They're absolutely without a peer in the state. They're tailor made at ready made prices. They're bestness at the price of cheapness. We guarantee them to be better values, better fitting, more satisfactory in every way than those that cost more money elsewhere. It's your money's worth that you want, and you get it here.

Take advantage of the few days that stand between you and the advent of these medium weights to look through the variety—at the handsome and exclusive styles we have provided. You'll find ours is a stock three times larger than any other, and yet there are stores that stand on the stilts of imagination and proclaim themselves leaders. Probe to the fact and they'll topple over under the weight of their own presumptive misrepresentations. Works makes leaders, not boasts—truth doesn't need any trumpets—gold doesn't need any gilding.
